The Pop and His Ulster.

BY T. J. FOARD.

When Vanity he strove to please,
And his vain longings thus appease,
What was it put his heart to ease?
His Ulster.

What gave to him a "toney" style,
And from the ladies won a smile,
As he their sadness did beguile?
His Ulster.

When he did promenade the street,
What was it "ashed" each lady sweet
Who trip'd along on dainty feet?
His Ulster.

When to the play-house he did go,
What made the usher to him show
A seat within the "toney" row?
His Ulster.

When in the fresco'd billiard-hall
He deftly handled the cue and ball,
What won for him the smiles of all?
His Ulster.

When to the Park he took a ride,
With some fair maiden by his side,
What added to his manly pride?
His Ulster.

What was it caus'd the hoodlum fun,
When on a "racket" for a "bun,"
Across the fair he chanced to run?
His Ulster.

When full of beer, with aching head,
He laid him on his little bed,
What made for him an ample "spread?"
His Ulster.

What gave his tailor trouble sore,
When last he knocked upon his door
And for his money roundly swore?
His Ulster.

What made him short of ready cash
Where with to buy his daily "hash,"
And with his landlord save a clash?
His Ulster.

When out of funds one chilly night,
And to assist him in his flight,
What gave his "Uncle" such delight?
His Ulster.

Alas! Dame Fortune doth him flout—
A close, warm he is without;
For now reposes "up the spout"
His Ulster.

The Pulse.

Many erroneous impressions prevail about the pulse as indicative of health or disease, a common notion being that its beatings are much more regular and uniform than they really are. Frequency varies with age. In the new-born infant the beatings are from 130 to 140 to the minute; in the second year from 100 to 115; from the fourteenth year, from 80 to 60; from the twenty-first to the sixtieth year, from 70 to 75. After that period the pulse is generally thought to decline, but medical authorities differ radically on this point, having expressed the most contradictory opinions. Young persons are often found whose pulses are below 60, and there have been many instances of pulses habitually reaching 100, or not exceeding 40, without apparent disease. Sex, especially in adults, influences the pulse, which in women is more rapid than in men of the same age. Muscular exertion, even position, materially affects the pulse. Its average frequency in healthy men of 27 is, when standing, 81, in women of the same age, in the same positions, 91, 84, and 69. In sleep the pulse is in general considerably slower than during wakefullness. In certain diseases, such as acute dropsy of the brain, for example, there may be 150, even 200, beats; in other kinds of disease, such as apoplexy and some organic affections of the heart, there may be no more than 20 to 30 to the minute. Thus one of the commonest diagnostic signs is liable to deceive the most experienced practioners.

The threat that Kansas is too cold a climate for the colored man to live in was well answered by a proposed emigrant from a Southern State the other day. A white man was telling him of the climate, when he asked: "Oh, Mars Bob, ain't dat Kansas de place de big squabble was afore de wah, 'bout you white folks takin' de niggers to?" "Oh, yes," was the reply. "Wall, den, ef it was good for slave niggers, how comes it to be so bad for free ones?" No answer when last heard from.

A boy has been discovered in Tennessee, the formation of whose backbone is peculiar. He has a hinge in it, as it were, which enables him to place his head and feet on the floor at the same time without experiencing any inconvenience. This is certainly an improvement in the way of boys. This country wants thousands of boys with hinges in their backs, and the boy who is compelled to pick potatoes and weed the garden will agree with us.—Norristown Herald.

A farmer takes a stock-dealer to his house to show him a fine lot of hogs which he wished to sell. At the door the visitor meets the farmer's daughter, a buxom lass with the rosiest of cheeks and the brightest of eyes. Wishing to pay a pretty compliment to the handsome young lady, he turns to her father and says: "Well, we shall make a trade immediately if your hogs are as fine as your daughter."

A young man with an extremely powerful voice was in doubt what branch of musical art to adopt. He went to the composer Cherubini for advice. "Suppose you sing me a few bars," said the master. The young fellow sang so loud that the walls fairly shook. "Now," said he, "what do you think I am best fitted for?" "Auctioneer," dryly replied Cherubini.

I'd rather my virtues be cherished in the hearts of my friends, than paraded on the most costly monument.

The Red Ant.

It is an important fact to announce that the red ant crop is now ripe; that is, it is ready to pick, or perhaps more properly to picnic. The picnic has no nobler use of all its uses than the elevation of the ant to a position, often of influence, in human affairs. There is no record of any picnic in any age without its red ant. "Go to the ant, thou sluggard," was only a paraphrase for ordering some lazy fellow to start on a picnic and learn to work. When he finds himself where he has to bring pails of water, carry the ice, fetch the baskets, spread the table and so on, and finds no chance to rest except by surrendering to the insect world completely and becoming alike their highway and their habitation, then he learns his little lesson of the advantage of paid labor, and flies away to give up slugging and earn honest wages.

The bug is a creature of already proverbial influence. The man with a flea in his ear and the man with a bee in his bonnet are both monumental; but the flea and the bee are no more influential than the ant. Scientists have made a study of this creature, and the stories they tell of its intelligence and skill belittle human generals in war or modern machinery in peace, and preserve our self-respect only as they incidentally illustrate our ability to comprehend such genius. But these great students of nature, with all their information, forget to give us a few habits of the ant. They may not indicate genius, but still they do impress the observer. For one thing, the ant is raveronsly fond of being eaten. Before the picnic table can be spread he will be mixing himself freely with the fine sugar, he will be in the cells of the bread, he will be bathing in the milk, and he will be lost in the melting butter. Whatever we are to eat he will be a part of. He seems bound to get at the inside facts of human nature. But he is equally eager for the outside. One division will go down a man's neck, and other divisions countermarch up his arms and ankles. One reason why, in spite of heat and fatigue, picnic parties always have a dance on the lawn the moment lunch is over is to shake out the ants from their clothes. Nobody ever really assigns this reason, but they all feel it and feel the ants, too, and hence their antics.

Now, man, in his make-up, has no reciprocal for this live of the ant for him. The bug neither improves his food nor his mood, and so the one-sided romance of misplaced affection in nature lies before the scientists an unsolved riddle in whose presence they are dumb. It would be worth more to us, though, to know how to stop it than is all that we are told as to the astonishing stratagems, plans, tricks, affection, caution and great courage of ants in their relations.

It is early, in the season, truly, to fall into this sort of meditation. The picnic boom has only just begun, and up to date the ant has had a pretty lonesome time of it. But he is sure of his game sooner or later. The more ants we eat at a picnic the more we find there the next time; the more we carry home in our clothes the greater the supply remaining, and as we only have our picnics in ant-time, this will always be so. It is ant-time now.—Charles Dudley Warner, in Hartford Courant.

"COME HOME EARLY."—Simple words, yet what a world of meaning they contain! Lips which are white and still enough now have whispered them some day. Joy and anticipation breath them alike, while despair forces them from aching hearts which have grown almost stony in their mighty sorrow. And yet they are daily murmured in some ears, and oh, heed them well. Come home early. A dear form awaits you, and the minutes seem like hours, and the hours will grow to be days in your absence, and the bright eyes will grow dim, and the trusting, patient heart weary with its waiting. Then come home early. Come while love waits to greet you. Come in from the fierce life battle purer for the great love which is yours and the dear lips which murmur so tenderly in your ears—"come home early."

FIELD MICE.—A correspondent of the English Farmer gives the following method for destroying field mice: "Cut a common sponge in small pieces (half an inch at most), and fry them in dripping (like fritters) until they harden, then scatter them at the spots infested by the field mice, and in a few days their dead and swollen bodies will be found everywhere. The bait should be laid in dry weather." Perhaps the same remedy would be available in case of other mice and rats.

There are some men so homely that pretty women fly to them and marry them for pity's sake. Why, a man may be so ugly that his face actually aches from pain caused by its terrible shape, and yet that man will become owner and proprietor of one of the sweetest little women in the world.

The whole "plan of salvation" is very brief and simple. But our learned doctors have spun the text out into so many quartos and octavos, that it requires a collegiate course to understand the first principles of religion

An ignorant man believes only what he sees. A wise man believes what others have seen.

Superstitions About Thunder.

Almost all the tribes in the United States believed the thunder to be produced by the wings of a great bird, and that the lightning was the serpents that were invariably connected with the thunder bird. Among the ancient tribes of the Mississippi Valley the thunder, therefore, soon became a thunder god, who could be propitiated with sacrifices. The Illinois Indians offered up a small dog when a child happened to be sick upon a day when there was much thunder, supposing that the latter to be a cause of the malady. Many accidents, like conflagrations, were attributed to this angry god, and some tribes did bloody penances of propitiation, often burning to death their own children. Statements that the Indians adored the thunder, however, seem to be erroneous. It was the cause of the thunder that they worshipped, and before which they burned tobacco and buffalo meat, or cut off the joints of their fingers, or threw their children into the fire when they were overcome with fear. The Peruvians had as an ideal a stone that had been split by the lightning. They offered it gold and silver. The natives of Honduras burned cotton seed when it thundered. Other southern tribes made no sacrifices on the approach of a storm, but abased themselves in the most abject fear. The wild rice being aquatic, and looking like an arrow or spear, it is also attributed to the thunder-spirit as its origin. In Mexico great temples were built upon the sacred spots where lightning had struck. A curious notion among Peruvians was that the preserved bodies of twin children who died in infancy should be worshipped, supposing that one of them was the sun of the thunder, the origin of this idea being the fact that the thunder god of that people was one of the celestial twins of Apocatequin and Piquerad. This tradition was utilized by Pizarro's missionaries to teach the Indians the doctrine of the Trinity.

MOIST AIR UNHEALTHY.—The theory is now ingeniously maintained by Prof. Briggs that the summer condition of temperature, 62 deg. to 68 deg., and relative humidity, 80 to 82 per cent., is not desirable or even attainable at other seasons in the heating of dwellings. His argument is that the dry air of America possesses both curative and preventive qualities of great value, and that moist air, which promotes vegetable growth, is, on sanitary grounds, not desirable for breathing. He states that the dew point is far below the freezing point of water in well warmed and ventilated rooms, where there is nothing of that sensation of dryness which is usually held to accompany the heat of a furnace, when not supplied with water for evaporation. Again, new houses, that are accounted unhealthy in Europe, are not so in America, and gas burned in rooms produces much less unpleasant effects in America than in England; what is needed is an equality in relative humidity between the interior and exterior air—thus if the outer temperature be 0, and relative humidity 40 per cent., and the interior temperature be 70 per cent., and the inrerior humidity ought to be raised to 70 deg., by adding a little water.

TYNDALL'S DEFINITION OF THE BRAIN.—The human brain, according to Prof. Tyndall's recent definition, is the organized register of infinitely numerous experiences received during the evolution of life, or rather during the evolution of that series of organisms through which the human organism has been reached; the effects of the most uniform and frequent of these experiences have been successively bequeathed, principal and interest, and have slowly mounted to that high intelligence which lies latent in the brain of the infant. Thus it happens, says Tyndall, that the European inherits from twenty to thirty more cubic inches more of brain than the Papuan—thus it happens that faculties, as of music, which scarcely exist in some inferior races, become congenital in those that are superior—thus, too, it happens that out of savages unable to count up to the number of their fingers, and speaking a language containing only nouns and verbs, arise at length Newtons and Shakspeares.

REPETITION.—Repetition is a far less serious fault than obscurity. Young writers are often unduly afraid of repeating the same word, and require to be reminded that it is always better to use the right word over again than to replace it by a wrong one—and a word which is liable to be misunderstood is a wrong one. A frank repetition of a word has even sometimes a kind of charm—as bearing the stamp of truth, the foundation of all excellence of style. A vigorous writer has no weak dread of repetition. Repetition is only bad when it arises from poverty of language; and when it is used by definite purpose of the writer it carries force and emphasis with it.—T. D. Hall's Manual of English Composition.

The bridegroom was not present at the time appointed for a wedding at Harmony, Ga. The bride, who knew his bashfulness, said his courage had probably failed him. Somebody suggested that a horn be blown to call him, and this was done. A responsive whoop was heard from the woods near by, but the young man did not appear until a scouting party brought him in by force. It was not until he became fearful of losing the girl, whose patience gave way to anger, that he mustered enough courage to face the ceremony.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT.

JAMES A. GARFIELD,

Of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

Of New York.

Election, Tuesday, November 2, 1880.

THE MINING BUREAU.—Hon. W. J. Hill, editor of the Salinas Index, pays the following compliment to the representative of Mono county in the last Legislature

We have received from Henry G. Hanks, State Minerologist, a printed circular calling attention to an Act of the last Legislature establishing the California State Mining Bureau. It sets forth that the Bureau commences with a large and valuable donation of ores, rocks, fossils, reports, books, etc., the entire collection and property of the State Geographical Society. A State museum of practical geology and ethnology of the Pacific coast will be special features of the Bureau, which will include all that pertains to practical mining. Every article presented will become the property of the State, for the use and benefit of the public, and the donors will be duly accredited. All packages should be addressed to the "California State Mining Bureau." Hon. Joseph Wasson, Assemblyman from Mono county was the author of the bill, and worked like a beaver to secure its passage; and to him, therefore, belongs the credit of giving a starter to an Institution which is destined, if properly managed, to be of incalculable benefit to the mining industries of the Pacific slope.

In the town of Monterey the censustaker found an old woman named Eumesia, who said that she came there from the Sierra Nevadas when the walls of the Carmelo Mission were only two feet high, and that she was married at the time. She is now over 122 years of age.

Two hundred Albany females made application for the position of census enumerator. The worst feature of appointing women to these positions is that it takes the bread out of the mouth of poor, delicate, uncomplaining man. Light work of this kind is what man needs.—N. Y. Advertiser.

The Republican Congresional Campaign Committee, have received encouraging advices from all sections of the country as to the organization of Garfield and Arthur Clubs, and of a determination to make the campaign a warm one,

There are twenty-seven young ladies from Mount Holyoke Seminary now engaged in teaching in various parts of South Africa. They use American text books in their schools, and adopt the American system of teaching.

A spear, used by ancient Mexicans, two feet long, and made of steel, gold, silver and copper, was found by L. Hall, near Wheatland, Yuba county, recently, who plowed it out of the ground.

On Monday last the steamboat Seawanhaker, plying between New York and Roslyn, Long Island, caught fire and was totally destroyed. A large number of lives were lost.

A western newspaper announces that "a young lady with a taste for painting can in six weeks decorate a room so fully that a visitor is bothered to know whether it is a private house or a faro bank."

Thus early the Democrats have elected Hancock—on paper. To offset their modesty in claiming all the doubtful States, and some of the strong Republican, they generously allow Garfield a few crumbs.

The vote next November will show that the Republicans at the North not only held their old forces, but that the young men and intelligent foreigners, casting their first vote, were a faithful reserve.

Mayor Kalloch, of San Francisco, on Sunday last preached a political sermon at the Metropolitan Temple, and announced himself a supporter of Hancock. Hancock is out of luck.

After this election the new apportionments will relieve Republicans of the pressure of a "Solid South." It will be the death-knell of the Democratic party.

Senators Booth and Blaine have taken a cottage together at the White Sulphur Springs. They will remain there three weeks.

It is now thought at Washington that General Logan will be made Chairman of the National Republican Committee.

Oregon's population is shown by the census to be about 150,000. Portland has about 20,000, including 4,000 Chinese.

Rev. De Witt Talmage, the famous Brooklyn preacher, is to come to California to lecture.

The hoisting works of the New York quartz mine, two miles west of Nevada City, were destroyed by fire on Sunday night.

Within a few days the cars will be running into Leadville.

INDEPENDENT.

The local political cauldron is beginning to simmer, and candidates for our several county offices are beginning to come to the surface. We believe that the system of putting the candidates for our local offices before the people on party platforms and through the manipulations of county Conventions is wrong, and fast becoming unpopular with the people. The average voter is becoming too independent to allow himself to blindly support the nominees of any political convention, be it Republican or Democrat, in the choice of local officers. No man will vote for a particular man for Sheriff, or County Clerk, merely because he is on a Republican, Democratic or a Workingman's ticket, if they do not consider him competent and honest. In these matters party has ceased to be effective, it making no difference whether a man is a Republican or Democrat when he is acting as a Coroner or as County Treasurer, so as he is fitted for the position, and is trustworthy. We, therefore in view of this independent spirit, are opposed to holding Conventions to nominate county officers, preferring to have candidates to run independent and on their own merits before the people. The Convention never yet convened that selected for candidates the men the people preferred and the ones best fitted for the position to which they aspired. We believe that the people of this county will be better satisfied and select better officers if candidates are allowed to run on their "own hook." We notice that the people of Kern county contemplate doing away with party nominations this year, and will elect their county officers irrespective of all parties, cliques and clans, and we hope the people of Mono will follow suit, or lead in the good work. Let candidates announce themselves and then let the people select their men on the day of election.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE MINERS' UNION.—This organization has decided to let the Fourth of July celebration pass without their countenance and presence, because the Grand Marshal of the Day, Captain I. G. Messec does not suit them. Under such rulings our Democratic fellow citizens might decline taking part in celebrating the Day so dear to Americans, because the President of the Day, Judge Wiggin, is a Republican; and the Republicans might get their backs up on account of Captain Messec and General Kittel, who is to deliver the oration, being Democrats. On such occasions Americans drop all sectional, party and personal feelings, but our adopted citizens of the Miners' Union are not so disposed, and wish to bulldoze our citizens. The action of the Union is an insult to the American people and a disgrace to an institution that has been respected and encouraged by the citizens of Bodie. It is true that all the members of the Union do not approve of the action of the majority, but the odium attaches to all. The procession will move on as patriotically as if the Miners' Union had never been thought of. One class of our adopted citizens fail to appreciate the blessings guaranteed to them by our too liberal-minded forefathers, while there is a better class—and in the Miners' Union, too—that fully appreciates them; and this class will be in the procession on Monday, and will thank God for being allowed to become citizens of our great country, instead of expecting thanks from our people for honoring our country with their august presence.

WHERE TO GO.—As our city will be visited by our friends from the rural districts of our county, on the Fourth they will find, by looking through our advertising columns where all their wants can be supplied. The "inner man" can be well looked after at the Can Can Restaurant, Johnson's Bodie House, Champion Chop House, or Bodie Hotel, opposite the Standard Mill. For fruit go to E. F. Gibson's, above the Post-office; of groceries a varied assortment can be found at Page, Wheaton & Co's., Eggleston's, Ritchie's, and Boone & Wright; the ladies will flatten the purses of husbands, uncles, cousins, and beaus, by buying their dry goods and fancy fixings at Hoffman Bros., L. Aronson's and Silas B. Smiths—all having fine stocks of silks, satins, etc. For jewelry, watches, etc., go to L. Hollander's. For books, stationery, and fancy articles, call on W. H. Ellis. For fine furniture, paper hangings carpets, etc., call on H. Ward. If you overload your stomach with the many good eatables to be found in Bodie, go to Boiset & Stewart's drug store and get something, or to one of the careful doctors, whose cards will be found in our "professional" column, and in the same column you will find the name of some good lawyer to apply to in case you should get into trouble. Put your teams in Kingsley's stable, and if your harness gives out buy a new one, or a saddle, at A. C. Raymond's, on Main street, above West & Bryant's, or Mill street, opposite Boone & Wright's corral. When you get "tired and sleepy too" go to the Occidental and take a room, and "night cap."

SOMETHING NEW.—We notice in the 4th of July programme that the officers of the Fire Department are to ride in carriages, in the procession. This is something new to firemen, and if that part of the programme is carried out as published it will detract from the appearance of the fire department. The Chief and Assistant Engineers should parade on foot at the head of the department. This is the first time we ever heard of a fireman to ride in a carriage on parade. If any worthy Chief Engineer will give the matter one serious thought he will see how ridiculous it will look. Carriages will do for "feather-bed" firemen, but not for active firemen, as the Bodie "boys" have proved themselves. Just think of the old fireman, Pat. Holland, being stowed away as an active fireman in a carriage in a Fourth of July procession! If the San Francisco insurance men should see our firemen riding in carriages they would increase their rates here.

THE FOURTH.—The National Anniversary will be celebrated on Monday next in a manner highly creditable to our city and the Committee of Arrangments managing the affair. The procession will be an imposing one, as all our associations will be in line, and also the several trades, etc. As we now have a respectable fire department—an engine, hook and ladder and two hose companies—Bodie will make as good showing on that occasion as any town of its age and size in the State. The literary exercises will be of the highest order, and in the evening there will be a brilliant display of fireworks on High Peak which can be seen from all parts of the city. We expect to see many visitors from all parts of the county and can assure them that they will be well repaid for the trouble and expense attending such a visit.

BE ON TIME.—On the Fourth of July every one should be "on time," when there is so much to be done and seen, so we advise those who have no time piece, to go to L. Hollander's and buy a watch. He has a fine assortment and will sell at low prices.

BULLION.—We are indebted to Major Atlee, of Wells, Fargo & Co., for the following statement of shipments of bullion for the month of June, 1880:

Order in the case of D. Steendler and Bodie Bank vacated.

F. M. Huffaker, upon examination in open Court, was admitted to practice.

Case of L. Jacobs, insolvent, stricken from the file.

HOME AGAIN.—Hon. Jo. Wasson, our worthy Assemblyman, returned from San Francisco on Sunday last, and will stand by the district during the Summer, and correspond, as usual, with the leading papers of the country. No man has done more than Mr. Wasson to bring our district into prominence, and we are pleased to have him again in our midst. He accomplished much that was beneficial to the mining interests of the State while in the Assembly last Winter and prevented much legislation antagonistical to such interests.

NEW MILL COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State of the Silver Hill Quartz Mill Company. Capital, $60,000. The Directors are:—A. F. Bryant, A. H. Wilbur, G. L. Putnam, D. Walker, and Thomas Steel—all Bodie men. The object of the incorporation is to erect a custom mill on the south end of our mineral belt, and for this purpose they have bought the Dunderburg Mill and will put it up here.

FLAGS.—Silas B. Smith has on hand a supply of flags of all sizes for decorating in honor of the Fourth. Hang out your banners!

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 22, 1880.

Just why the Canadian weather prophets should have prepared for us the intense heat we are now grumbling over, "is more than any fellow can find out." It is, at present writing, hot and still a heating, with no immediate prospects of its getting cooler. The breeze blows lazily from the south, now and then a cloud drifts across the sun, but the cooling rains, like the Priest and the Levite, passed over on the other side. The streets wear a Sunday aspect, few pedestrians being seen. It is too warm for politics or politicians, and but little interest is manifested; but when the sun goes down and the air cools our young Columbian orators will occupy their street corners, to the high delight of the small boy and the street mendicant. You do not know how much you owe to these pent up political volcanoes for your political radications, and perhaps will never realize the tremendous influence over National and State politics that these clerical servants of the Government exert. If you are at all skeptical on this point, and are inclined to doubt their pretentious powers, then send your most talented interviewer and have him diagnose the case. Just now Henry Smith, the Journal Clerk of the House, is busy compiling for publication a document showing what Congress has not done during the past session, and it bids fair to be a formidable document.

The Arctic Exploring party organized by Capt. Hawgate left last night. There was quite a party to see the Gulnare off, and the friends of the gentlemen belonging to the expedition came laden with numerous floral tributes. In order to make assurance doubly sure, the Gulnare was inspected yesterday and pronounced first class in every respect. The Navy Department, for some unexplicable reasons, has antagonized the expedition from the commencement, and has refused it any aid.

Capt. Henry Palmer of New Sweden, Conn. who has spent nine winters in the Artic seas will take charge of the vessel. His first mate is also from New Sweden and an old whaler. The Secretary of War has granted a leave of absence for one year to Lieut. Gustavus C. Doane who will take command of the expedition. Lieut W. H. Lowe has also obtained leave of absence, and will accompany Lieut. Doane. Dr. Rowey of the Signal Corps will go as surgeon. W. S. Jewel will be the meteorologist of the expedition. The naturalist is Dr. Octave Pavy, a native of France—Henry Clay, a grand son of the great orator and statesman has resigned his position as prosecuting attorney at Louisville, Ky., and has offered his services to Capt. Howgate without compensation.

The expenses of the expedition and pay of the officers and men will be met by private means.

First Controller Porter retires about the 1st day of August and although the time intervening before the present administration goes out of office is short. Secretary Sherman is in receipt of numerous applications of parties, who are anxious to serve their country as First Controller. The reason for this seeming ludicrous scramble, is that the applicants all have the idea that if Garfield is elected Sherman will retain his position as the head of the treasury. The position is the most important one in the Treasury Department.

SCHOOL CENSUS.—Census Marshal Mageath have completed the school census in Bodie District, with the following result; whole number of children, 579; Number between the ages of 5 and 17 years, 366, born of native parents, 238; born of one foreign parent, 135; born of full foreign parentage, 206; foreign born, 5; Chinese, 5; There two colored children entitled to school benefits.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—A. O. U. W., have elected the following officers: P. B. Taylor, M. W; Selden Hetzel, F; G. S. Morgan, O; N. S. Warren, Reciever; R. G. Preshaw, Financier; L. N. Snyder, Recorder; J. J. Stewart, O. W; G. Alexander, J. W.; Examining Physician, D. B. E. Stevenson. This lodge is in a very flourishing condition.

HORSE KILLED.—On Monday last, one of J. N. Summer's teams, hauling three wagons loaded with square timbers, lost one of its best horses while descending the grade into Bodie. The horse stepped into a hole and fell, and was cut through by the wagon.

NEW PORCH.—Judge Goodson is having a new porch put up in front of his building—the CHRONICLE office—which will add much to the appearance of the property.—The Occidental Hotel property has also had a porch added to its front.

UNFOUNDED.—A report having been sent from Bodie to Carson that the Antelope road was under water, the stage was not started on Wednesday. There was no truth in the report. The line is now running regularly.

BOQUETS.—E. F Gibson, of the fruit market, just above the Post-office, will receive some beautiful boquets for the Fourth. Buy one for your sweetheart, wife, cousins, aunts, and mother-in-law and make them happy.

FINE FRUIT.—E. F. Gibson, of the Union Fruit Market, just above the Post-office, will have a fine assortment of fresh fruit in store for to-morrow and Monday.

RECORDS.—For six months, ending June 30th, there were recorded in the County Recorder's office 279 mining and 223 real estate deeds, a total of 502.

SONORA ROAD.—This road is open, but the West Walker river is too high for teams to cross. It will probably be two weeks before the stage will be put on the route.

COUNTY SEAT ITEMS.

[From the Bridgeport Union].

GRAND JURY.—The following is the list drawn for a Grand Jury, to be in attendance on Tuesday next: E. Rosenthal, F. R. Brown, J. L. Colman, Joseph McDermott, A. F. Hector, W. C. Jones, W. H. Ellis, T. H. Moore, H. Aug. Whiting, Alex. Beck, W. P. Holmes, H. E. Batten, D. Shannon, R. K. Peasley, Jas. Sinnamon, H. Donnell, J. K. Dennison, Josiah Hill, W. Leonard, Thos. McNamara, W. D. A. Gerkins, D. Ashley, D. W. Wording, O. H. P. Love, J. H. McGrath, L. Huntoon, Wm. Rabjohn, J. M. Martin, J. F. Byrne, E. Phines.

LAND OFFICE.—Hancock's election would place Ginn and Hoole in the Bodie Land Office. In the meantime the Free Press should keep the Receiver in place to grab the advertisements and make hay while the sun shines, for a storm is brewing. The "index" points that way—so it is said. Let our Bodie cotemporaries, that are out in the cold, ponder over this and take such comfort as they can, under the circumstances. How they "snort" at the sight of the timber ads. in the Receiver's paper.

AWARDED.—On Tuesday afternoon last, at 1 o'clock, by order of the Board of Supervisors, the contract for building the Court House was sold at public auction to Charles Anton, Samuel W. Hopkins and James Caine for $23,900, the lowest bid. Bonds having been filed, work will immediately commence. The contractors have until December 15th, to complete the building. The Supervisors cannot be too highly commended in this respect.

NEW DIGGINGS.—On the 17th ult., Thos. Ryan, of Blackmore, Ryan & Scott, found good ore in their claim, the Keystone, on Green Creek, eight miles from Bridgeport, which assays, by Wilcox & Brown, in gold, $213 49; silver, $2 65; total, $216 14. This claim is 1¼ mile from the Dunderberg mine. A mining district is to be organized.

NEW DISTRICTS.—The Constitution providing for the election of Supervisors next November, it will be the duty of the Board to redistrict the county. Among others it has been suggested that they be formed thus; Antelope and Bridgeport; Bodie; and Benton, Homer and Lake; or Bodie and Homer; and Benton and Lake.

MORTGAGES.—During the six months ending June 30th, 56 mortgages were recorded in the County Recorder's office, and 13 were released.

LUNDY.—Too many millionaires and woodticks in Homer District. The former are all feet, but no money; the latter all egs and mouths.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—After a session of four days the Board adjourned on Saturday last. The Pacific Coast Reader was adopted in place of McGuffey's.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—Pursuant to adjournment the Board met on Tuesday last, and, after awarding a contract for a Court House, adjourned sine die.

HIGH WATER.—The Antelope stage failed to come through from Carson on Wednesday. It is reported that a bridge over the West Walker river is carried away.

ON DIT.—That John I. Ginn, Jarboe and Kelly are to lease the Bodie Standard and hoist the Democratic ticket.

ADMITTED.—On Monday last Love, Parker, Whitehill and Whitman were admitted to practice in the Superior Court.

REGISTER!—The old Great Register having been cancelled, it behooves every Republican to be registered again.

WILL MEET.—The Superior Court will meet on Tuesday next, when a Grand Jury will be empanneled.

CENSUS.—Mammoth and surrounding camps have about 550 inhabitants and Lundy about 230.

BIG MEADOWS AND BODIE TOLL ROAD.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE rates of tolls on the BIG MEADOWS AND BODIE WAGON ROAD are as follows:

Buggy team	$ 50
Loaded wagon and two animals	1 00
Each additional pair of animals	50
Horseman	25
Pack Animals, each	25
Hogs and sheep, each	3
Loose stock, each	5
Empty teams half-price.

The Road Company is entitled to collect, by authority of the Supervisors, $1 00 on each buggy team, and, also, fifty cents on each trail wagon, but, wishing to favor the teamsters in all ways, it concluded to make the above reductions, and, at the same time, to keep its roads in the best of order for travel. If any toll-gate keeper collects more tolls than the amounts set forth above, the person so imposed upon will confer a favor by reporting the same to the undersigned.

No deadheads will be permitted to pass on the road.

All tolls will be required to be paid at the time of passing the toll gates, as no credit is given.

Any toll keeper giving credit will be discharged.

IN

THE BRIDGEPORT UNION.

THE CHRONICLE.

BODIE, JULY 3, 1880.

LAND OFFICE ADVERTISING.

Under date of April 19, 1880, Commissioner J. A. Williamson issued the following circular to the Registers and Receivers of the U. S. District Land offices:

"It has from time to time been represented to me by credible parties, and through official sources, that the rates charged by various newspapers for the publication of notices of application for patents to mineral lands have been and are, in many instances, excessive.

Section 2325, U. S. Revised Statutes, provides that the Register of the Land Office "shall publish a notice that such application has been made, for the period of sixty days, in a newspaper to be by him designated as published nearest to such claim." Hence it follows that the Register must, under said Section 2325, designate the newspaper published nearest the claim, and that the applicant for patent (who under Section 2334 must pay the cost of publication) is compelled to pay whatever price is charged by the publisher or relinquish his proceedings for patent.

Being forced to conclude that exorbitant charges are thus frequently made in different localities, to the manifest oppression of applicants for patents to mineral lands, I am convinced that it is my official duty to establish the maximum charges for publication of said notices, as authorized by Section 2334, Revised Statutes.

By virtue of said authority I therefore direct that the maximum charges for publication of notices of application for patent to mineral lands shall not exceed fifteen dollars; and for publication of citations in contests or hearing involving the character of lands, ten dollars.

You are hereby instructed to promulgate this order by mailing a copy of this Circular to each of the newspapers published within your land district; and you will report to me all cases in which it shall come to your knowledge that an excess in said rates shall have been charged.

I am not inclined to unnecessarily interpose official authority in matters which can properly be otherwise arranged—and make this order with reluctance. I have fixed the said rates at precisely the figures which for several years last past have controlled like publications in the Stockton and Sacramento land districts in California.

In the event of excessive charges in the future, I shall be compelled to exercise the further authority vested in me by said Section 2334, Revised Statutes, and designate some one newspaper in each land district, where such excessive charges are made, for the publication of all mining notices, and fix the rates to be charged by such papers.

In the performance of the duty of designating the newspaper as [illegible] published nearest the claim, you are not expected to make a discrimination, on account of the distance of the place of publication from the claim, between different newspapers published in the same town or city. Any one of several newspapers so situated may be designated."

Natural Language of the Hands.

The hand has a great share in expressing our thoughts and feelings; raising the hands toward heaven, with the palms united, expresses devotion and supplication; wringing them grief; throwing them toward heaven, admiration; dejected hands, despair and amazement; folding them idleness; holding the fingers intermingled, musing and thoughtfulness; holding them forth together, yielding and submission; lifting them and the eyes to heaven, appeal; waving the hand from us, prohibition; extending the right hand to any one, peace, piety, and safety; scratching the head, care and perplexing thought; laying the right hand on the heart, affection and solemn affirmation; holding up the thumb, approbation; placing the right forefinger on the lips perpendicularly, bidding silence.

A Vermont Town Board wrestled with the word "Dangerous," to be used as a sign on a bridge, for over an hour, and finally got it "Danjerus."

A man's chances of heaven are not necessarily the less, merely because he is rich. Neither do I believe the Lord is partial to tramps.

To cure canaries when they have fits, put a drop of spirits of nitre into the water the bird drinks.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE County of Mono, State of California.

Decree of Foreclosure and Order of Sale.

SIDNEY HUNTOON, Plaintiff, vs. H. P. NOYES, Defendant.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure issued out of the Superior Court of the County of Mono, State of California, on the [illegible] day of June, A. D. 1880, in the above entitled action wherein Sidney Huntoon, the above named Plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree against H. P. Noyes, Defendant, on the 19th day of June, A. D. 1880, which said decree was, on the —— day of June, A. D. 1880, recorded in Book — of said Court, at page —, I am commanded to sell

All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situated in the town of Bodie County of Mono, State of California, and described as follows, to wit:

All that certain town lot situated in the town of Bodie County of Mono, State of California, and described as beginning at the northwest corner of the lot of William Wilson, on the east side of Main street, nearly opposite Hickman & Conover's saloon, and running thence fifty (50) feet northerly; thence at right angles in an easterly direction one hundred (100) feet; thence at right angles in a southerly direction fifty (50) feet; thence at right angles in a westerly direction one hundred (100) feet to the place of beginning, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging.

Public notice is hereby given that on the

NINETEENTH day of JULY, 1880,

at 12 o'clock M. of that day, in front of the Court House, in the County of Mono, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy plaintiff's judgment with interest thereon and costs, to the highest and best bidder, for gold coin of the United States.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT MADE AND entered into this the First day of April, A. D. 1880, between David Hitchell, of Bodie, Mono County, State of California, Party of one part; and Sam Chung, of the same place, Party of the other part:

Witnesseth as follows:

The said parties above named have agreed to become Copartners in business and by these presents do agree to become copartners in business together, under and by the name or firm of David Hitchell & Co. in the business of keeping a Lodging House and such other business as the above mentioned parties may hereafter agree to, and to occupy a house on A street, Homer Township, Mono County, State of California, their copartnership to commence on the day and year first above written, and to continue until dissolved either through a course of law or by mutual consent, and to that end and purpose the said David Hitchell and Sam Chung have delivered in as capital stock the sum of One thousand dollars each share and share alike, to be used and employed in common between them for the support and management of the said business as to their mutual benefit and advantage. And it is agreed by and between the parties to these presents that at all times during the continuance of their copartnership, they and each of them will give their attendance and to the utmost of their skill and power exert themselves for their joint interest, profit, benefit and advantage, and truly employ, buy and sell merchandise with their joint stock and the increase thereof, in the business aforesaid, and also shall and will at all times during their copartnership bear, pay and discharge equally between them all rents, and other expenses that may be required for the support and management of the said business, and that all gains, profits and increase that come, grow, or arise from or by means of their said business, shall be divided between them, the said copartners, share and share alike, and all loss that shall happen to their said joint business by all commodities, bad debts or otherwise, shall be borne and paid equally between them. And it is agreed by and between the said parties that there shall be kept at all times during the continuance of their copartnership, perfect, just and true books of accounts wherein each of the said copartners shall enter and set down as well all moneys by them or either of them received, paid, laid out or expended in and about the said business, as also all the goods, wares, commodities and merchandise by them or either of them bought or sold by reason of or on account of the said business, and all other matters and things whatsoever to the said business and management thereof or in anywise belonging, which said books shall be used in common between the said copartners so that either of them may have access thereto. And the said parties hereby mutually covenant and agree to and with each other that during the continuance of the said partnership, neither of them shall or will indorse any note or otherwise become surety for any person or persons whomsoever without the consent of the said copartners. And at the end or other sooner determination of their copartnership, the said copartners each to the other shall and will make a true, just and final account of all things relating to their said business, and in all things truly adjust the same, and all and every stock and stocks, as well as the gains and increase thereof which shall appear to be remaining either in money, goods, wares and fixtures, debts or otherwise shall be divided between them, share and share alike.

In witness whereof the said parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above written.
